

Manuscript Exhibit at the St. Shenouda Center for Coptic Studies

The Society will be unveiling its new Manuscripts and rare books acquisitions to the public. The collection currently includes 43 manuscripts, of which the last 19 manuscripts acquired will be displayed. The displayed items have estimated dated ranging from the 16th century to the 19th century. This include Biblical, Liturgical, Hagiographic (Lives of the Saints), and Literary items.

Date: December 29, 2007

Time: 11 am – 2:30 pm

Place: St. Shenouda Center for Coptic Studies

Address: 1494 So. Robertson Blvd, Suite 102, Los Angeles, CA 90035

All are invited.

Sincerely,

Hany N. Takla, President

St. Shenouda the Archimandrite Coptic Society